

THE JEWISH ASSOCIATION OF SPIRITUALITY AND DREAMS

He had a dream; a stairway was set on the ground and its top ascended to the sky and angels of God were going up and down on it. – Genesis 28:13

The Jewish Association of Spirituality and Dreams
presents:

DREAMS IN THE TIME OF COVID-19

Like angels ascending and descending Jacob's ladder, dreams link heaven and earth, the physical and the cosmic. Dreams, the language of the soul, the voice of the Divine, open a sacred space.

During these difficult days, our dreams maybe be more vivid – perhaps disturbing, sometimes enlightening, always intriguing. To explore their messages and meaning, we invite you to a special, live virtual event. Together, we will learn, share, and explore the deeper lessons of our dreams to help reduce stress and enhance well-being.

Wednesday, May 27, 2020, 1:30-3:00 P.M. Eastern Time, $18

RSVP Joyce@JoyceLynn.com

Looking forward to sharing this experience with you.

Joyce Lynn and Rabbi Gaylia R. Rooks, JASD co-founders

Linda K. Bledsoe, Advisory Board Chair

This program will be limited to the first 10 people who register.

Your registration fee will go toward the federal tax-exempt status application for JASD.

The mission of the Jewish Association of Spirituality and Dreams is to embrace dream wisdom as a fundamental pillar of Jewish spirituality and impart dream awareness as a spiritual practice. Our goal is to create an interfaith community of dreamers focused on tikkun atzmi and tikkun olam, healing ourselves and our world.

Jewish Association of Spirituality and Dreams, Ltd.
A Kentucky Unincorporated Non-Profit Association.
PO Box 7152, Louisville, Kentucky 40257
Phone: 502.263.7001